PLAUTUS: MOSTELLARIA

SUNDAY 16 OCTOBER, 2PM

Young men spending other people's money on call girls. Shady property deals and renovation-envy. Wild partying by home-alone teens. Find out how the Romans did it at an exclusive performance of scenes from Plautus' classic comedy, the Mostellaria.

Students and staff from the University of Sydney will present an abridged version of the play in the original Latin, with English surtitles. A performance not to be missed!
