Following the Annual General Meeting there will be a lecture (at approx. 7.00 pm) by

Dr Anne Rogerson

Lecturer in Classics, University of Sydney

The Aeneid and its sequels.

Synopsis: The gaps and inconsistencies in the Aeneid are notorious. This talk examines various attempts to paper over (or exploit) Virgil's uncertainties, by authors writing from the Renaissance to the present day.

We hope you will make our AGM a priority in your diary !

Members of the Classical Association are reminded that the annual subscription is now due and a form of renewal may be found at www.classics.org.au
